ELDERLY MAN SHOT TWICE.

John H. Hill of Pownal Will Recover—Marshall Perham Arrested.

Bennington, April 29.—Marshall Perham, a brother of Leon Perham, who is serving a life sentence in the state prison for assisting Mary Rogers in the killing of her husband in this village in August, 1902, is in custody awaiting a hearing on the charge of having assaulted John H. Hill of Pownal and shooting the latter twice with an old-fashioned pistol. John H. Hill, 81 years old, a veteran of the Civil war, whose home is near Pownal, about two miles east of Pownal Center, is in the North Adams, Mass., hospital with two bullet wounds in his thigh. Perham is charged with the shooting, which occurred late Tuesday afternoon at the small farm owned by Hill.

Perham's mother has been the aged veteran's housekeeper for some time, and, presumably, because of this fact it has been difficult to obtain the details of the shooting from the victim. At the hospital Hill stated that he would make no charge against the son of his housekeeper.

According to the admissions which were reluctantly made by Hill, the younger man appeared at the farm about 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and made some remarks to which Hill took exception. The quarrel became bitter and ended when Perham drew an old-fashioned powder and ball revolver of .45 calibre and fired six shots. As he pulled the trigger, Perham is reported to have exclaimed: "I'll kill you, you old fool."

Hill fell with two bullets in his leg. The nearest officer, Deputy Sheriff F. A. Wilson, lives at North Pownal, several miles distant, and it was some time before information of the shooting was received at that village.

Dr. E. E. Potter of North Pownal made an examination of Hill's wounds and hurried the victim of the shooting to the North Adams hospital by automobile. Here the two bullet wounds were examined, and the physician stated that should no complications develop, the wounded man should recover.

Both bullets struck the thigh bone, but neither caused a fracture. Perham is alleged to have fired from a distance of not over 15 feet, and the weapon must have been lightly charged not to have inflicted more serious wounds.

State's Attorney F. C. Archibald of Manchester and Sheriff Godfrey have been in Pownal investigating the affair.

According to Perham's story, Hill drew a revolver and snapped the trigger, but the weapon was not discharged. Perham claims he then produced his revolver and that during the squabble it was discharged.

PLAN COUNTRY CLUB.

Propose To Lease Samson Lake View Property on Lake Shore.

St. Albans, April 29.—A meeting of those who have signed their intention of joining a country club at the Samson Lake View property on the shore of Lake Champlain will be held this evening to perfect an organization. Arrangements have been made with Mr. Samson, who has proposed to lease the house for a year or more, so that if thought advisable the plan will be carried out at once.

Annual convocation of St. Albans commandery, No. 11, K. T., Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Election of officers.

WANTS $7,000 FOR INJURY.

Rutland Railroad Passenger Sues Because Glass Flew in One Eye.

Rutland, April 29.—A peculiar accident in a passenger coach on the Rutland railroad last summer has resulted in a $7,000 suit against the corporation, the papers being served yesterday by Sheriff E. C. Fish in an action brought by Thomas B. Duling of Manchester, a carpenter by trade. An attachment covering the ad damnum in the case was made by the officer. Atty. Frank C. Archibald is attorney for the plaintiff, who claims to have been made partially blind by the accident.

In the original papers, Mr. Duling alleges that on July 5, 1915, he was a passenger traveling on a first-class ticket, he making a trip from Manchester to Burlington and return. On the return trip one of the trainmen was in the act of lighting the lamps in the coach when one of them exploded as the "gas" or other highly explosive inflammable material came in contact with the match.

The glass shade or globe which surrounded the light was blown to pieces and it is alleged that particles of the glass penetrated the eyes of the plaintiff. For a long time he was unable to see, and since immediately following the accident told of in the papers he has been kept from his work by reason of the injuries.

Mr. Duling alleges that the company was negligent in not providing a safe place for the purpose of restoring which he paid the rate charged by the defendant company and that the company was negligent in not providing proper and safe lights in the coaches reserved for passengers. There are two separate counts in the allegation.

NATIVE OF VERMONT.

William Chapman Kinney Died at Plainfield, N. J.

Plainfield, N. J., April 29.—William Chapman Kinney, aged 51 years, for a number of years connected with the New York banking firm of Harvey Fish & Sons, died at Mullenburg hospital Tuesday night, where he underwent an operation two weeks ago.

He was a native of Plainfield, Vt., and following his graduation from Dartmouth college took up the study of law and was admitted to the bar.

Funeral services for Mr. Corey were held in the Catholic church at Berlin Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, a priest of the Syrian branch of the church officiating. Interment was in the Catholic cemetery at Berlin.

N. M. Nelson went to his barn on Merchant street one morning recently and learned that three of his heavy draft horses had broken through the floor sometime during the night. How long they had been absent from the first floor of the barn, Mr. Nelson was unable to ascertain, as no one appears to have heard any commotion during the night. The horses were found in the basement, apparently none the worse for their experience, although they had been compelled to stand for several hours in the water.

At the close of the regular meeting of the ladies' auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans, last evening in Forester's hall, Worthen block, the auxiliary and Sons of Veterans united in giving a reception to the new state commander, A. W. Robinson, and the past commander, G. T. Brigham. Ice cream and cake were served and during the post-prandial exercises which followed, nearly everyone present took occasion to speak, the reception proving very enjoyable to all. There was a good attendance at the meeting and later event.

Under the auspices of the young people's society, Mrs. Hanson delivered an interesting descriptive lecture on Egypt in the vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd last evening. A sizable audience attended Mrs. Hanson's pleasant lecture. Other pleasantly contributions to the program included a piano solo by Miss Reid, a reading by Miss Poor, and a vocal solo by Miss Skayton. Following the program refreshments were served. The affair last night brought to a close a series of entertainments held during the winter and spring months by the young people's society. All of the gatherings have been of a highly enjoyable character and it is planned to inaugurate a similar series next fall.

The second clean-up and paint-up campaign in Barre is to be open on the morning of Monday, May 2. This spring's campaign is to be waged on a broader scale than that of last year and with the increased interest in the movement that has been given to the 1915 effort to make Barre a cleaner and more beautiful city in which to live, it is confidently expected that results commensurate with the 1914 campaign will be attained. Practically every civic and trade organization in Barre had pledged itself to co-operate in the movement. It is to be warfare against unclean conditions and no stone will be left unturned in the effort to make the city look as clean and bright as a new copper penny. People who have knowledge of whereabouts of waste accumulations are urged to communicate with the health authorities at once.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Miss Olive G. Robinson of Rutland, a former teacher in the primary department of the village schools, was in town over the week-end as the guest of Mrs. W. B. Jones. Miss Robinson is now teaching in Northfield, where she has some of the high school work and is also special teacher in music and drawing.

Joan Clogston is at home on a vacation from the Albany business college, where he has finished a ten weeks' course. He does not intend to return until next fall.

Mrs. Julia Blanchard and daughter, Nellie, of Barre are visiting relatives in town.

While at work on the road a little south of Heman Smith's house last week, Oliver W. Martin dug out two stumps from the center of the roadway, the road having been built over the stumps after the trees were cut down in such a way that the path traveled by horses was directly over the top of the stumps. The wood was not badly decayed, as the ground there is somewhat wet. It appears that they must have stood there since the building of the road, or something over 100 years.

The Christian Endeavorers will hold a service in the schoolhouse beside the Old Red Meetinghouse on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. It will be largely musical. All in the district are cordially invited to be present.

Merrill Martin, who has been in government employ as chemist and assayer at the mint in San Francisco for several years, was offered positions in the same line in both New York and Alaska when his appointment expired some weeks ago. He decided to accept the work in Alaska, and is now in that territory.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank my many friends for remembering me so kindly with a postcard shower and also for their good wishes.

Real Estate and Personal Property!

On account of the death of my wife, I have decided to sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Thursday, May 6th

at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon, on the premises where I now live in South Washington, four miles from Chelsea, five miles from Washington and three miles to Corinth, the following described real estate and personal property:—

MY HOME FARM

known as the Kennedy farm, containing about 120 acres of land, equally divided into tillage, pasture and woodland; tillage land lays well and is productive; there is quite a quantity of softwood lumber; two new barns—one 18x24 ft., and one 30x24 ft. House is in comfortable condition; about one-half mile from school. This is a good comfortable home for any one wanting a one man proposition.

Personal Property

consists of one pair of oxen, seven years old, very handy, weight about 2,000 lbs.; one 10-months old better calf, a dairy; 14 hogs; 1 horse, weight about 1,000 lbs.; a good worker; 1 Osborne mowing machine; 1 horse rake; cultivator; express wagon; lumber wagon; harrow; plow; work harness; ox yokes; a lot of iron pipe, one-half inch; 4 chains; whiffletree; rock yokes; bars; axes; etc., etc. Also a cream separator; 200 soft wood logs; about 20 run of wood and a lot of other articles not mentioned.

Household Furniture

Chairs, tables, beds and bedding, 1 new Singer sewing machine, table and bed linen, a lot of dishes, kitchen and glass ware, etc., etc.

All to be sold without reserve or limit and for the highest cash value stated, as I am breaking up my home and have no use for the property.

Such position, lunch at noon, Thursday, May 6th, 1915, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

worked in close association with him and who has been keenly interested in all that he has done and all that he hoped to accomplish in Barre, and to the daughter so early deprived of a father's companionship and love, and to the sisters to whom he was very near, our sincere appreciation of the efficient service which Mr. Roscoe gave to this community and of his able, enthusiastic and successful administration of our public school system. His going from us has left a vacant place which cannot easily be filled. We shall miss his cheery greeting, his contagious enthusiasm, his unusual capacity for friendship. We shall miss his counsel, his keen interest in our city and its institutions, his loyalty to it and to its good name. We shall miss his experience and his wide knowledge of educational affairs at a time when educational thought is in a transition period and men of his open mind and quick perceptions are needed not only in Barre but in the state at large. Barre has lost one of its most loyal and best loved citizens. Each of us has lost a personal friend.

"Be it resolved, therefore, That this inadequate expression of our grief and of our sense of loss be entered upon our records and that a copy be sent to his family.

WATERBURY

Reception To-morrow Night for Outgoing and Incoming Methodist Pastors.

Rev. Verne L. Smith arrives to-night to take up his work as pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and two daughters will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lamb until the parsonage is ready for occupancy.

Rev. Verne L. Smith was born in Barrington, Nova Scotia, in 1890. When a small boy, he moved with his parents to Brookline, Mass., and was educated there in the grammar schools, in the Hingham high schools, in the Y. M. C. A. night schools in Boston, and the Boston university theological school. He also took a postgraduate course in psychology and social service. Since then, he has served the churches in West Duxbury, Marion, and Hingham, Mass. Mr. Smith is strong in young people's work and was president of the Old Colony circuit league. He was ordained into the New England Southern conference and transferred from that to the Vermont conference, with all conference work completed. Mrs. Smith was born on Prince Edward island and was educated in the New England Training School for Christian Service. Although much regret is expressed at the decision of Rev. W. E. Douglass to leave town, yet his people congratulate him upon the appointment to Enosburg Falls, and rejoice that they have assigned to this charge one who comes with such promise of helpfulness.

To-morrow evening (Friday) at 8 o'clock, the parish invites everyone to the reception in the Methodist church parlors to Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Douglass and Rev. and Mrs. V. L. Smith. This will give each a chance for a word of welcome to the new pastor and wife and to give to Mr. and Mrs. Douglass another word of friendly greeting, showing appreciation of their work while here. It is intended that this invitation be very general.

Mr. Smith's successor in Hingham, Mass., is Rev. H. H. Crawford, brother of Rev. Guy Crawford, formerly of Moretown, now of Randolph. The adjoining pastorate there also has Rev. N. M. New-
